Office Order

In the Lockdown situation implemented due to Covid-19, the degree programme of PG and Ph.D. students should not be deviated from time frame, especially for the PG students who have completed all the course work including research work, comprehensive examinations and are seeking admission for Ph.D. degree through competitive examinations. All Major Advisors are directed to give directions to their students to continue their thesis writing work and get them checked online by Major Advisor and other members of the Advisory Committee in stipulated time frame so that they may be able to get admission in higher degree programme. After completion of writing work, thesis will be evaluated by external examiner and viva-voce may be conducted on line. Further, where comprehensive/preliminary examination has not conducted yet the same may be conducted through video-conferencing with the concerned external examiner.
